

Dear Commissioners of the FCC,
I am writing to urge you to retain the remaining rules governing media ownership. If these regulations were to be eliminated, it would have serious consequences for both our culture and our democracy.

Specifically:

- * It would stifle dissenting voices and opinions.
- * It would further dumb-down the information available to consumers.

Additionally, as an independent writer and creator of material for various media outlets, I am concerned that such a reduction in competition would deprive me of the means by which I earn my living.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Yours truly,

Gina M. Signorella-Arlen.
